Does Foundation Invest in Gun Violence Prevention?

- Yes: 23%
- No: 77%

Reasons for Not Investing

- Outside of Defined Focus Areas: 51%
- No Requests/Not Discussed: 51%
- Other Higher Priority Issues: 34%
- Not a Significant Concern in Communities Served: 5%
- Too Controversial: 4%

Prevention Strategies Supported

- Help for High-Risk People: 59%
- Policy Advocacy: 41%
- Public Education: 36%
- Research: 32%
- Youth Development: 32%
- Addressing High-Risk Places: 23%
- Criminal Justice Reform: 14%

Level of Investment

- Strategic Priority: 23%
- Significant Investments: 9%
- Modest Investments: 14%
- Limited Investments: 9%
- Very Limited Investments: 32%
- Unsure: 14%

Board Support

- Highly Supportive: 45%
- Cautiously Supportive: 14%
- Has Not Discussed: 27%
- Unsure: 14%

N = 95 respondents representing 88 foundations with a single response and 3 foundations with multiple responses.

Support provided by a grant from The Jacob & Valeria Langeloth Foundation.